MANILA AFFAIRS.

The Philippine commission in Manile has given much consideration to the subject of a separate government for the islands south of the Vissya where the authority of the Sultan of Sulu interferes with the general scheme of ac ministration to be applied to other sections of the Philippines. It is probabe that a department governor will be appointed to act in behalf of the United States and to represent American atthority in conducting a civil government for those who are under American jurisdiction, and to negotiate with the Sultan and his chieftains.

The U. S. coast and geodetic survey snnounced that a number of native Filipinos were desired to take a cyli serv coexamination so that they might gery 0: examination so that they might quality for the coast survey work now in progress in the Pollippines The civil service commission stated that only American chizens can take the civil service examination, and to allow a Filipiro to do so would promou ce him and american chizen in advance of the a Filiph o to do so would from the central and American citizen in advance of the Action of the Supreme Court of the Unit of States. Secretary Hay has brought the matter before the President who has notored his riquest, without, however, suppending the civil service rule as to citizenship. The decision is not to be taken as a precedent.

The caus; of woman's suffrage has taken a great stride forward in the Pallippines. According to dispatches received at the War department, a woman has been made "presidente" or Mayor of the town of Novaliches. Capt. Julian E Gaujet of the 27 h Volunter and the support of Julian E Gaujet of the 2/n volunteer Infantry had the appointment, but could not find a man in the place whom he considered competent to fill the berth. He therefore appointed a business like woman and if the reports from Novaliches are to be credited, she is making a first class official. Novaliches is ten miles from Manila. The men in the town did not like the idea of being ruled by a wom in at firs, but as she had the etrong hand of the army to back her up in her decisions, the men were forced to obey. Now it is said that even the presidene's most severe critics admit that she is a very good one, and it is said to be possible that other women will be selected to fil similar positions when the need arises
